HIGGINS OR WATERS: * AN OPEN QUESTION

One of Them Rode a Sorrel Mule, but Opinions Differed as to Which It Was.

the Tables on Winterbottom When He Learns It.

By DAVID A. CURTIS,

City looking at a man who was riding said he al'ays onderstood it was Alec. along the levee astride of a sorrel mule.
"Some gits along an' some don't. Some gits habich'l, an' some never gits nothin'. was a brother o' his'n." me is prone to riches, like the sparks says, an' others don't never 'pear to git to lie occasional, like anybody does once than to 'rish.' in the world 'thousen the b'ller busts under 'em, an' then like that man what done went by as not they don't never come down no onto a mule, now," he continued with mo'. One minute they 'll be chockful calm disregard of the purplish flush that flood an' him an' his wife was lodged up atop of a big cottonwood by the ragin' waters an' left there to perish I don't keer much 'bout meetin' up with with honger, bein 's they wa'n't nothin' in the house to eat. like they hadn't been fo' a week or mo', Jim bein' in hard luck at the time. 'Peared like the top 'nquire fo' me up to the tavern."

of her most providential, the cap'n havin' a int'rest into a prosp'rous faro bank in Little Rock an' givin' Jim a job as signt better lookin. Mo 'n likely he's daid, anyway. I ain't saw nothin' of him afo' for a matter o' five year or thereabouts."

Winterhotion seemed by no means like he sho' was. An' 'twa'n't no time at all afo' Jim was rich an' respectable oncer mo'.

"That wouldn't 'a' been Lem, not onder no circumstants. If he'd ever had a house, what I never heerd how he ever house house, what I never heerd how he ever house house, what I never heerd how he ever house hou house, what I never heerd how he ever had one, an' it'd been carried away into a flood they wouldn't 'a' been no tree fo' 'em to git lodged into. An' they'd 'a' starved to death in the top o' it afo' the boat come. An' even a'ter that the boat come is a flood they wouldn't 'a' been no tree fo' to find annoying. When Sam Pearsall, however, remarked vaguely that some people did not seem to know when the drinks were on them the old man invited the company to step up to the bar shut out the dread death dide fall. And the murk and the bale fire of brittle shut out the dread horror from all. with no sal'ry to it, bein's Lem hadn't no nach'l talent. Mo' 'n likely he'd 'a' used him fo' a roustabout, makin' him pay his passage thataway, an' Lem was that quar'lsome what the mate 'd prob'ly killed him afo' they made a landin' anywheres.

"That was the way things al'ays was his knowledge of etiquette in the usual state of bittle and the bar and breathed more easily.

"Th' ain't no use rubbin' on it in."

"The fate of all races and kings.

Juige Thou by whose sin are breath of bittle and out the dread horror from all.

O God, into Whose hands are given The fate of all races and kings.

Juige Thou by whose sin are breath of bittle and out the dread horror from all.

O God, into Whose hands are given The fate of all races and kings.

Juige Thou by whose sin are breath of bittle and out the dread horror from all.

O Hod, into Whose hands are given The fate of all races and kings.

Juige Thou by whose sin are breath of bittle and out the dread horror from all.

O Hod, into Whose hands are given The fate of all races and kings.

Juige Thou by whose sin are breath of bittle and out the dread horror from all. cap'n wouldn't never 'a' gave Lem a job vited the company to step up to the bar with Lem. He's ridin' a mule right now, but I'll bet fo' dollars he done borried him f'm a cross eyed nigger, 'thouten he done stole it offen somebody. he said, "not till a'ter he's done took a an' they ain't no health into him. If ever with his money and insisted on doing they was a po' devil buffeted about by his part, so that not only one but sevthe iron hand of impecun'osity till the iron entered into his soul an' the hand ject of poker was introduced and a thorough the popular tall.

The little common joys of every day, My garden blowing in an April wind.

A linner's greeting and the morning fall of happy sunshine through the opened blind.

The popular tall the common joys of every day, My garden blowing in an April wind.

A linner's greeting and the morning fall of happy sunshine through the opened blind.

The popular tall the common joys of every day, My garden blowing in an April wind.

A linner's greeting and the morning fall of happy sunshine through the opened blind.

The popular tall the common joys of every day, My garden blowing in an April wind.

A linner's greeting and the morning fall of happy sunshine through the opened blind. nipped his asp'rations into the bud with oughly social understanding was established. Moreover, Mr. Higgins compin' him up the back like a buzz saw mended himself to favorable considerations from my humble walls. an' freezin' his young blood with desp'ration by displaying a wad of size.

tion an' dismay, it's him.

And they thought even more of him felt mo' 'r less sorry fo' him, an' if they'd ily, that he was not only willing but 'a' been any use into it I'd 'a' gave 's anxious to risk his money on the much as fo' bits fo' to give him a fresh chances of a poker game. Considerable atween him an' Jim?" asked Jake Win- knowledge of poker to enable him to play terbottom, who had seen the man on a social game around home, but he was muleback and who had listened to the poorly qualified to sit in with antago-ot birth some way, on'y how they wa'n't gamely when the old man suggested the same age, Jim bein' a year or two older or younger 'n Lem, on'y they next time, and though he did not deficouldn't nobody never tell which 'twas nitely promise to come again he left an fiter they'd done been changed. Said impression when he took his leave that it useter bother him c'usid'able when he certain'y would do so. to be licked when they'd be any- when he counted the winnings of the thin' did wrong. A'ter a spell, though, evening.

he begin to see what Lem was the one He exclintion, however, turned to 'twas al'ays cotched out when they was deep chargin when he discovered the trouble. Didn't 'pear to have gumption new deep that all the money that had enough to lie outen it, so bimely been annexed was counterfeit grown up mo' alike. He 'lowed mebbe | nothing to say.

to him," said Winterbottom, "nor he And Old Man Greenlaw Turns ain't nothin' else to him, 'cordin' to what he al'ays done told me. Jim le on to me oncet what he never done had no pa. Him what would 'a' been his pa was blowed up onto a boat nigh about six months afo' Jim was borned, an' his name was Alec. 'Pears like yo' all must 'a' been misinfo'med "Beats all how diffrent men is," said 'bout him bein' called Ephraim. O co'se Jim hadn't no means o' knowin' old man Greenlaw as he stood in the what his reel name was on'y f'm what doorway of his little saloon in Arkansas he done heer'd a'terwards, but he done

"That's mo' 'r less e'reck," admitted flies up in th' air, like the Good Book Winterbottom. "I have knowed Jim o' life an' hope, an' the next they just was rising on old man Greenlaw's countenance. "I've knowed him fo' some years as bein' a man named Higgins. affire or if they critinate to be 15% all the was fo' 'em.

If the was fo' em.

If the was for em.

If the o' that tree was the plumb bottom of everything, 's fur 's Jim an' Mis' Waters was c'ncerned.

"Then they was a boat come along in a week or two an' done took 'em off fust as they was gittin' d'scouraged like. Just as they was gittin' d'scouraged like, come to think on it Higgins is a heap an' Jim got playin' poker with the cap'n sight better lookin. Mo' 'n likely he's

'That was the way things al'ays was his knowledge of etiquette in the usual

He ain't never had no prop'ty outsiden a few dogs since he growed up.

"Pears like he's done been the spo't o' dest'ny fm the cradle to the grave.

o' dest'ny fm the cradle to the grave.

an'they ain't no health into him grave.

tion an' dismay, it's him.

"They has been times when I've done when they discovered, as they did speed, willing but start in the world, but I knowed enthusiasm was roused when he pro-'wouldn't do no good. He wouldn't 'a' posed a sitting and there was no delay havin' had no money to speak of an' contest.

not bein' nothin' but a unearned increment nohow. An' b'sides that, it's ag'in my principles fo' to 'ncourage shif'less-ness."

"How come they was sich a diff'rence atween him an' Jim?" asked Jake Win-knowledge of poker to enable him to play.

whatever about arranging an immediate whatever about arranging an immediate contest.

Aside from the zest that was imparted to the game, however, by the presence to the game, however, by the presence of important money on the table, it proved to be rather monotonous. Mr. Higgins had undoubtedly sufficient knowledge of poker to enable him to play. muleback and who had listened to the old man's story with much interest.

"Ain't no tellin'," said the old man promptly. "They was al'aya thataway. Old Ephraim Waters, what was pa to both on 'em, useter say to me what he coildn't 'count fo' it nohow. Said he recknowled what they must 'a' been changed with him. On the contrary, he smiled with him. On the contrary, he smiled the same when the old man suggested.

they was little, bein's he couldn't never "Yo' friend sho' is a spo't," said the tell, as a rule, which one on 'em ought old man in great glee to Winterbottom enough to lie outen it, so bimely proper to have gumption, need does that all the money that had been annexed was counterfeit. The proper to do nothin' for him an' he done give the heft of his efforts to'ds that mule posterday." he exclaimed, fetchin' Jim up proper, lookin' on Lem that mule posterday." he exclaimed, that mule posterday." he exclaimed, "Didn't look reas'nable to me what no man 's rich 's yo all said Higgins was shi'd have to borry a mule offen a cross-eyed night to both on on."

And this time Winterbottom had nothing to say.

BOGUS MONEY IN THE GAME

Somewhat doubtful about 20, looking at him sharply, "he just nachully wouldn't. Lem ain't no credit to him."

Through the dark valley that manking shall win. From just of power and jealousy and sin To heights of peace and perfect amity?

Chiston Scotlard.

Fleet and shy and slient, Silm of waist and wrist. With a fairy touch in darkness, And a low laugh. List! Was she changed in her cradle? By an Undine kissed? Will she vanish from her bridal

In a moonlight mist? Blue wells her eyes are, in a cheek of warm snow. White breadths of needlework All round her flow In her virgin chamber Of stately quiet. Lo, er far off lovers wonder

Who will dare her 'No." Breathless in her brown frock She races down the lane. Romping with the children And fearless of the rain; riendly with the vagrant And tender with the old. Her heart is pearl and gold.

SARAH N. CLEGHORN.

And I was regent o' the East, And lacked not anything— Who dreams at poor and twenty is richer than a king!

And all the dreams it knew.

For light o' care to walk the world is better than the gold— Alas, for rich and fifty, When all the dreams are sold! Anthen Kerenth.

The Woman's Thanks.

There is so much strong men are thankful for.
A nation's progress, or a slow strife's end;
And though I join my praise with theirs
I have to-slay.
Grave things are these I scarce can comprehend.
So vast are they:
And so apart, dear God, I pray Thee take
My thanks for these. Thy little blessings'

Like Sabbath stillness from my humble Than the heart of the citizen hissing in and makes good he wins-the game.

The little, simple joys that we forget Until we lose them; for the lamp that Jights.

The pages of the books I love the best.

The hearth's red welcoming on winter nights, rest his direct and the near might share within its circle, and the near mighanionship of those the heart holds dear. The dear, accustomed Joys we lightly take Too much for granted sometimes, as a

From the Chicago Tribune We give our children drums to heat Before they stand upon their feet; We give them swords and solders gay, And at the game of wir they play. We bend the twig of humankind. Yet marvel if the tree's inclined.

Early we learn that might is right.
That life itself is one long fight.
This world's a battlefield, we teach.
Rusness is war—a common speech.
We bash our brother on the nose,
Yet weep if nations come to blows.

Our poems and pictures, books and plays. The doughty deeds of warriors praise. Our mode of speech, our mode of life. Are echoes of the ancient strife. The women does an initiate, Yet—"war's a horrible affair."

Betty With Her Market Basket. In these days of costly living I have little use, I own, For the maid who stocks the larder By the lazy telephone. But the sterner times are with us,

And the simpler ways they bring; Betty with her market basket Is the girl I want to sing.

For she totes it to the market

And at prices cheap and thrifty
And at prices cheap and thrifty
Fills it with a luscious store.
Yet for me 'twill prave expensive,
And my fears will not be hid;
Betty with her market basket Setty with her market busket Slows my heart beneath its lid. MCLANDBURGH WILSON.

And now there comes a grimmer.

And now there comes a grimmer.

Voicing its suffering. Oh. God, what gain
In all this woe of nations? Can it be Through the dark valley that mankind that shall win.

From lust of power and jealousy and sin
the United States citizenship acquired by naturalization as relieving her former citizens from the congation of military citizens from the congation of military service, and if so to what extent?

If. R. L.

"A German subject is liable to military authorities, may, after a residence in the United States and after due naturalization, return to Germany on a visit, but his right to remain in his former home is denied by Germany, and he may be expelled after a brief sofourn on the ground that he left Germany merely to evade military service. It is not safe for a person who has been expelled to return to Germany without having obtained permission to do so in advance. A person who has completed his military service and has reached his thirty-first year and become an American citizen may safely return to Germany.

the United States citizenship acquired by naturalization as relieving her former citizens from the obugation of military service, and if so to what extent?

If. R. L.

The subject is of such importance that space may well be spared for a statement of the doctrine of the Department of State in the matter. It is contained in paragraph 106 of Van Dyne's "Citizenship of the United States."

It is contained in paragraph 106 of Van Dyne's "Citizenship of the United States."

It is used to the court and in upholding it the court said:

"Nor will the natural justice and propriety be questioned of an arrangement by which the home acquired by the joint labor of this brother and sister, and in which they had laid the heartstone around which the sentiment of their lives had been warmed into memories of each other, should remain to the one who would be left. It had been warmed into memories of each other, should remain to the one who would be left. It had been warmed into memories of each other, should remain to the one who would be left. It had been warmed into memories of each other, should remain to the one who would be left."

It is contained in prodefice E. Church, Lewis Cohen, the deal was questioned in upholding it the court said:

"Nor will the natural justice and propriety be questioned of an arrangement by which the home acquired by the joint labor of this brother and sister, and in which the home acquired by the joint labor of this brother and in upholding it the court said:

"Nor will the natural justice and propriety be questioned of an arrangement by which the home acquired by the joint labor of this brother and sister, and in which the home acquired by the joint labor of this brother and in upholding it the court said:

"Nor will the natural justice and propriety be questioned of an arrangement by which the home acquired by the joint labor of this brother and in uphold ing it the court said:

"Nor will the court said:

"Nor will the court said:

"Nor will the natural justice and propriety be questioned of an

In the absence of any knowledge of the be left alone. The question is whether these service from the time he has completed hands it is impossible to say whether parties have disregarded rules of conthe seventeenth year of his age until the A's no trumper was sound or B's takeout duct which the law has established to international exhibition of paintings forty-fifth year, active service lasting was justified. It looks as if A passed guard against the defeat of justice, and held at the Carnegie Institute at Pittsfrom the beginning of his twentieth year the second round so as to set the heart thereby caused the miscarriage of their burg in the spring of 1915. This course prospered onto 'em like water offen a duck's back. If any o' the bows an' arrers o' outrageous fortune was fired at him he'd al'ays manage some way to pluck honey outen 'em like the busy bee o' Scripter.

"Peared like it was nach'! talent. One time his house was swep' away into a flood an' him an' his wife was lodged of an' him an' his wife was lodged on the lock of an an' him an' his wife was lodged on the lock of an an' him an' his wife was lodged on the lock of an an' him an' his wife was lodged on the lock of the lust good an' him an' his wife was lodged on the lock of the lust good an' him an' his wife was lodged on the lock of the lust good an' him an' his wife was lodged on the lock of the lust good an' him an' his wife was lodged on the lock of the lust good an' him an' his wife was lodged on the lock of the lust good an' him an' his wife was lodged on the lock of fortune at the solid part of the last good and the matter of the suft and our clubs shed was the flush slowly faded out of his face.

"Richer 'n river mud," said Winterest as the flush slowly faded out of his face.

"Richer 'n river with 'is good of the living may not hait to hark the dead:

"Well, any friend o' yo'n is welcome of the solid on any time his house was swep' away into a flood an' him an' his wife was lodged on the lock of the lust gower.

"Well, any friend o' yo'n is welcome of the last good on the solid part of the suit can be dropped. The he suit can be dropped. The suit can be dropped. T it, he lost that bet. Had the side bet the price of the blessings of peace." What is its source and what is the rest of it?

EDWARD KOHLMEYER.

Tennyson in "Maud":

Why do they prate of the blessings of peace? We have made them a curse.
Pickpeckets, each hand lusting for all that is not its own;
And lust of gain, in the spirit of Cain, is it better or worse.
Than the heart of the citizen hissing in war on his own hearthstone?

Tan you inform me when white was made the element of purity?

WALTER S. KELLET.

It, he lost that bet. Had the side bet better find the side better of the blessings of the would have been that A would lose the price of the blessings of the would have been in the right, as that was not decided in the right, as that was not decided by this wife was heard by the Appellate in the last two or three years of his great and to the life use of real estate left by his wife was heard by the Appellate by the work and to the life use of real estate left by his wife was heard by the Appellate by the work and to the life use of real estate left by his wife was heard by the Appellate by the last two or three years of his life.

From the first years of his great and to the life use of real estate left by his wife was heard by the Appellate by the work and to the life use of real estate left by his wife was heard by the Appellate by the last two companion portraits from the same and to the life use of real estate left by his wife was heard by the Appellate by the last two contains and the second for the life use of real estate left by his wife was heard by the Appellate by the last two contains and the special provision of the Supreme Court in Yung vs. Blake, in which it appeared that Ama Louise Yung, who died in 1906, left by his wife was heard by the Appellate by the Appellate by the last two contains and the work was heard by the Appellate by the Appell war on his own hearthmone?

Can you inform me when white was made the element of purity?

Wattra S. Keller.

Investigation has revealed no more as to white than the natural figure of the cards in the window, any hearth is to white than the natural figure of the portify as physical elements. But the purity as physical elements are supported to the cards in the window. The purity of heavenly interest, the fact that light bine is in decorative and the purity. Perhaps some of our friends can supply initial alless for the The player is forbiddent to show the window of name any card it contains art will more distinctive a symbol of moral purity. Perhaps some of our friends can supply initial alless for the The player is forbiddent of some and whether or not he is himself in the purity of heavenly blue calls for comparison that the content of the first trick has for the first trick has for the first bright has been content to the purity of heavenly blue calls for comparison that the content of the first trick has for the first bright has been content to the original properties. Every many any chance of reaching their designation.

It is a supply that is all the purity of heavenly blue calls for comparison that the content of the content of the purity of heavenly blue calls for comparison that the comparison that the content of the content of the content of the content of the first trick has for the strict has for the purity of heavenly blue calls for comparison that the comparison of the content of the co that was so, but he was some feeble in his old age, an' not havin' the stren'th to lick both on 'em the way it ought fo' to be did he had to let one on 'em go. I let's feek on that was how Lem's hard luck done loguin, but th' ain't no tellin'. Mo' in likely he'd 'a' turned out bad any how."

The ver heer'd Jim make no mention of the bother, said Winterbottom thoughtfully. He had listened for houghtfully. He had listened for houghtfully. He had listened for houghtfully. He had listened for the dark valley that mankind whether or not he prince is suffering the same agrimmer, greater pain voicing its suffering. Oh, Gol, what gain all this wo of nations? Can it be the dark valley that mankind whether or not he performed military service from the diltary service from her diltare who has suit for the recovery of property on which brother certex penalty and what becomes of the United States of America and have herowers of the United States of America and have herowers of the United States of America and have herowers of the United States of America and have herowers of the United States of America and have here comes agrimmer, greater pain voicing its suffering. Oh, Gol, what gain all this wo of nations? Can it be formany and whether or not he performed military service from the diltare person have a suit for the recovery of property on which brother the definition of the United States of America and have here comes agrimmer, greater pain voicing its suffering Oh, Gol, what gain is all this wo of nations? Can it be formany and whether or not he performed military service from her diltare recovery of property on which brother and have recovered the recovery of property on which brother recovery of property on which broth from the beginning of his twentieth year the second round so as to set the heart thereby caused the miscarriage of their to the end of his thirty-sixth year.

"A German who emigrates before he is 17 years old, or before he has been actually called upon to appear before the military called upon to support the contract. His refusal to support the contract of the miscarriage of their called upon by the fine arts committee some time ago as wise and knowledged a general warranty deed, contact this refusal to support the contract. His refusal to support the contract this refusal to support the contract. His refusal to support the contract. His refusal to support the contract the refusal to support the contract. His refusal to support the contract the contract the refusal to support the contract the contract the contract the refusal to support the contract the contract the refusal to support the contract the contract the contract the refusal to support the contract the contract the refusal to support the contract the refusal to supp chamber of the kingdom and not of the empire, the voters are divided into three classes according to the amount of taxes, consecuency they pay: the largest taxpayers, who together pay one-third of the taxes, constituting the first class: the next highest taxpayers, who together 'pay another third, forming the second class: and the remaining taxpayers forming the third class. Each class of voters chooses an equal number of electors, who then assemble and choose the representatives are seeded advantage.

B. K. says: A bids no trump over a specially after the second round.

B. K. says: A bids no trump over a specially after the second round.

B. K. says: A bids no trump over a specially after the second round.

B. K. says: A bids no trump over a specially after the second round.

B. K. says: A bids no trump over a specially after the second round.

B. K. says: A bids no trump over a specially after the second round.

B. K. says: A bids no trump over a specially after the second round.

B. K. says: A bids no trump over a specially after the second round.

B. K. says: A bids no trump over a specially after the second round.

B. K. says: A bids no trump over a specially after the second round.

B. K. says: A bids no trump over a specially after the second round.

B. K. says: A bids no trump over a specially after the second round.

B. K. says: A bids no trump over a specially after the second round.

B. K. says: A bids no trump over a specially after the second round.

B. K. says: A bids no trump over a specially after the second round.

B. K. says: A bids no trump over a specially after the second round.

B. K. says: A bids no trump over a specially after the second round.

B. K. says: A bids no trump over a specially after the second round.

B. K. says: A bids no trump over a specially after the second round.

B. K. says: A bids no trump over a specially after the second round.

B. K. says: A bids no trump over a specially after the second round.

B. K. says: A bids no trump over a specially after the second round. in' a int'rest into a prosp'rous faro bank in Little Rock an' givin' Jim a job as dealer soon 's he found what Jim was almighty slick about handlin' cyards, like he sho' was. An' twa'n't no time at all afo' Jim was rich an' respectable once i mo'.

"That wouldn't 'a' been Lem, not onder no circumstants. If he'd ever had a list friends, for some reason, seemed by no means almight in Little Rock an' givin' Jim a job as dealer soon 's he found what Jim was admightly slick about handlin' cyards, like he sho' was. An' twa'n't no time at line he shows and look steadily at the long state of the memory of a woman, the waves of the gray North Sea redden the basis of one for about the related on the basis of one for about the show the same of the Reichstag are chosen in accordance with the terms of the major suits, hearts or royals, as selfer to the major suits, hearts or royals, as selfer to the major suits, hearts or royals, as skill glow before day light is done. And the sea fogs soft cell over the fairways that the momont, was correct in calling the two clubs.

The members of the Reichstag are of the major suits, hearts or royals, as skill glow before day light is done. And the sea fogs soft cell over the fairways that the momont of the reabouts."

The members of the Reichstag are chosen in accordance with the terms of the major suits, hearts or royals as skill glow before day light is done. And the sea fogs soft cell over the fairways the sasked to the memory of a woman, and so trumper shows support for either of the major suits, hearts or royals as skill glow before day light is done. And the sea fogs soft cell over the fairways the dealers of the major suits, hearts or royals as skill glow before day light is done. And the sea fogs soft cell over the fairways the dealer was have the tributed on the basis of one for about the relation to the major suits, hearts or royals as skill glow before day light is done. And the sea fogs soft cell over the fairways the saked to the major suits and the two clubs.

The readouts

Kindly, in your very helpful "Questions and Answers" column, settle a little matter that an esteemed friend of mine and myself have agreed to refer to you. This is the question: After the close of the civil war, in reconstruction days, did the late Gen. Sickles have command of a military division which included the State of Georgia, with headquarters somewhere in that State?

He was appointed to the command of a military division which included the State of Georgia, with headquarters somewhere in that State?

He was appointed to the command of a military division which included the State of Georgia, with headquarters somewhere in that State?

He was appointed to the command of a military district of the Carolinas in 1 rings token.

He was appointed to the command of a military district of the Carolinas in 1 rings token.

Were the first of the Carolinas in the wins the side bet of the military district of the Carolinas in the side bet of the discusses the Rembrandts. Two of the thirteen Rembrandts in this command. As a sop the President offered to nominate him Minister to the Netherlands, but Gen. Sickles declined the late of the message was not decletered in time and the the telegraph company to the the discussed the scene, which per value to the discussed the scene, and the relation that the telegraph company to the plantiff made a needless trip. The court holds that the telegraph company to the plantiff made a needless trip. The court holds that the telegraph company to the plantiff made a needless trip. The court holds that the telegraph company to be the the delivered in the message was not delivered in time and the message and says:

"Here plantiffs trip was clearly not the message and says:

"Here plantiffs trip was clearly not the message and says:

"Here plantiffs trip was clearly not the message and says:

"Here plantiffs trip was clearly not the message and says:

"Here plantiffs trip was clearly not the message and says:

"Here plantiffs trip was clearly not the message and says:

"Here plantiffs tri